Charging you with the job...

*To leave
things
cleaner
than we found it!!!*

The Phoenix Parks department has undergone a change in management and the current staff wants to bring Encanto park back to prominence in the parks system. Since they don't have a budget for most of the changes that need to happen they are looking to the users of the park. The users that make the park shine will be allowed to stay. The others...lets just say we don't want to be on that list. Despite what many think cigarette do not degrade in the Arizona weather an must be picked up individually. This is a time consuming process and uses up the time for the landscaping staff that would be better served elsewhere. The Park has asked us to help in addressing this issue. While the SCA is just one user of the park we can make a lot of friends in the parks department by watching our trash, especially cigarette butts. If you smoke be sure to put the butts in the trash, if you don't but see them on the ground in our areas pick them up an put them in the trash. Lets make sure the Wednesday Night Encanto Practice is around for a few more years.

Lord Doron, Seneschal

From the Board of Directors

In 2005, in pursuit of the goal to professionalize the corporate operations of the SCA, the Board of Directors began the process of creating the necessary mission and business statements to define the Society's scope and purpose as a nonprofit 501.c.3 corporation.

The Alliance for Nonprofit Management lists a mission statement as one of the primary characteristics of a successful nonprofit organization. They cite the needs for a clearly defined mission statement, a dynamic and active board of directors, and an organization-wide commitment to set values and goals as vital to success in the nonprofit sector.

To quote the National Endowment for the Arts, "Mission, Business, and Values Statements are the glue which holds an organization together. They describe what you are trying to do, how you want to go about it, and where you are headed. Knowing these things helps keep an organization on track, and provides a yardstick to measure present performance and plans against aspirations and values."

A Mission Statement helps define what an organization wants to achieve. Why does the organization exist? What does it ultimately wish to accomplish? Mission statements must be neither too broad in scope nor too narrow in focus, or they will not successfully represent an organization's purpose.

A Business Statement outlines the framework with which an organization chooses to pursue its mission, provide for its members, and answers the question, "How will we work to facilitate the accomplishment of our organizational goals?"

A Values Statement outlines the principles and beliefs held in common by members of the organization, which are used as a guide in the accomplishment of the mission.

To that end, the Board of Directors of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. has created the following three articles and places them before the membership for commentary and input.

Mission statement: The Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA) is an international organization devoted to the research and re-creation of pre-seventeenth century life, encouraging its participants to employ a knowledge of history to enrich their lives and the lives of others through events, demonstrations, and other educational venues.

Business statement: As a 501.c.3 corporation the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA) provides the necessary business structure for the operation of its official branches, for the coordination of centralized policies and practices, and for the dissemination of information to its international constituency of participants.

Value statement: As an organization the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) values the principles of chivalry, honor, personal integrity, and artistry idealized in pre-Seventeenth century culture and society.

The Directors request comments from the membership regarding this proposed revision no later than April 1st, 2008. Please send them to:

From the Hospitaller

With the advent of cooler weather, we saw some increase in newcomers at Encanto, though I have received no email or phone queries this month.

War practice melees attracted few young men interested in fighting, and they are all already acquiring armor.

Once again, I ask all of Their Excellencies' subjects to refer newcomers and questions to my deputies and me.

In service to the Barony and Kingdom of Atenveldt,

Hospitaller for the Barony of Atenveldt

From the Chirurgeon

Greetings good gentles!

The weather is cooling down and we are heading into war season. This will actually account for an increase in injuries if we are not paying attention. The temperature has decreased, but not the chances for heat exhaustion and sunburn. Be aware if you sweat at all, you are still at risk, prevention is the best medicine. With the increase in melee activity, there are more opportunities for twisted ankles and broken fingers (among other things). PLEASE!!!!!! play safe out there and make sure you are using the appropriate protection.

A visit from Their Majesties

by Lord Michael Sinestro (Michael A. Zachary)
Copyright © 2005 Michael A. Zachary

T'was a week before Christmas and all round the site
Everybody was stirring on Yule feast night
The banners were hung on the walls with great care
In hopes that Their Majesties soon would be there
The children were playing their games on the floor
As people signed in with troll at the door
The poor harried autocrat longed for her bed
But steadied herself for the long night ahead
When outside the building there rose such a cry
The autocrat hurried to see who drew nigh
In the space of a moment she flew 'cross the floor
Made her way down the hall and flung open the door
A great throng of courtiers greeted her gaze
As the evenings festivities entered a new phase
For there in the crowd could clearly be seen
Glorious Atenveldt's king, and his beautiful queen
Like a conquering army their retinue came
As the crowns called their officers all out by name
On herald, earl marshal, and chirurgeon too
Sheriff, scribe, and arts minister, do what you do
Now chronicler, exchequer, and wise seneschal
Let's set up the thrones and prepare now the hall
The courtiers responded like actors on cue
Each carefully rehearsed in the things he must do
They descended upon the appointed place
And soon all was ready, the thrones were in place
The populace waited with anticipation

As all of the royal court took up their stations
And when all was ready there rose a great cry
“Make way for the crowns, to the court draw nigh”
They were dressed in their finest, a sight to behold
Around their fair necks hung chains of fine gold
An armload of scrolls their herald did bear
A promise of awards for the good gentles there
Their bearing, how regal, how noble their pace
In brightness the heavens could not match their face
Their manner was solemn, and yet full of fun
And the crowns on their heads were as bright as the sun
Saluting our sovereigns we stood one and all
As Their Majesties advanced down the length of the hall
In solemn procession they marched to their thrones
Then entreated their subjects to rest our old bones
The crowns gave their greetings to the populace there
Inspiring us all with their speeches so fair
Announcements they gave to all ladies and lords
Then thrilled all our hearts as they passed out awards
Recognizing the worthy, and sowing the seeds
To inspire all the others to greater deeds
Then almost as soon as the court was begun
The business was over, now time for more fun
We feasted and reveled well into the night
Till at last the time came to close up the site
Farewells were then given in voice loud and clear
“Happy Yuletide to all, and we’ll see you next year”
Then the voice of the autocrat rose in the night
“Now let’s all remember to clean up the site”

Atenveldt Baronial Yule

Let the revels begin. Their Excellencies, the Baron and Baroness of Atenveldt proudly invite you to ring in the holiday cheer with Them as They celebrate the Yule season on the night of December 15th, 2007 in the Germanic style to honor our beloved Baron Otto's heritage. In fact, there will be a prize given by Their Excellencies for Their choice of the best German party garb seen during the night.

There will be holiday festivities including caroling and dancing; as well as a sumptuous side bar finger feast served to you by Mistress Isabel. And there will be a fully stocked bar during the event provided by the site at which the populace will be able to purchase both alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages.

(NOTE: Please do not bring any of your own liquids OF ANY KIND to the site.

All drink will be provided though the sites own bar. Free water and tea will be available during the feast as well.) As a gift to the populace Their Excellencies have decided not to charge any site fees for this year's Yule revel, this includes feast fees. And, as if that were not enough, Their Excellencies are also giving one ticket to each reveler which will be good for one (1) non-alcoholic beverage redeemable at the site's bar free of charge.

The Yule revel will be held at the Irish Cultural Center (1106 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85004). Site opens at 5pm and closes at 11pm. (Set-up begins at 4pm.) Directions: The site is on the east side of Margaret Hance Park, but is not approachable through the park itself except by on foot. ## Greetings from the Keeper of the Fair

I would like to remind everyone that we have merchants out at the park on the 1st Wednesday of the month. The wares presented by the merchants range from armor, weapons, and necklaces to garb, buttons & soap.

I would also like to let all potential autocrats know that the merchants are very willing to come to events. Please talk to them or myself about what kind of needs we may have to be able to attend events.

Lord Olaf Mjorkseiglandi
Keeper of the faire

This is BIG RED

Everybody say, “Oooohhh, I know what BIG RED is now.” Yes, Big Red is the Barony of Atenveldt’s large tent that houses our courts and provides us shade. Big Red needs your help with repairs, maintenance, and eventual replacement. Now, you might be saying, “What could I do? I know nothing of tent repair.” That’s okay. The Barony now has:

<http://www.cafepress.com/baronyofaten>

Available for purchase are t-shirts, sweatshirts, pins, stickers, and even dog shirts. Every body can have their “Baronial pride on.” Funds earned from Café Press purchases go directly to much needed repairs and eventual replacement of our very own Big Red. So, you REALLY can make a difference.

Rapier Marshal (Open until December 1, 2007)

It is time for a new Baronial Rapier Marshal. The gentle filling this position must be willing to oversee the field at Wednesday night practice and fulfill the following duties: Send in monthly reports to the KRM and Baronial Earl Marshal, attend monthly Baronial officer meetings, keep themselves updated on Kingdom and Society rapier rules, authorize new fighters ( you must be a Warranted Marshal), marshal tournaments, ensure the safety of the field and openly communicate with Their Excellencies and the Earl Marshal. If you are interested in this position, please e-mail myself, Capt. Scarlett Hawkins, at: RedPyrate66@cox.net or the Baronial Seneschal.

Herald (Open until January 1, 2008)

The Barony is seeking a Herald. Please look to the Kingdom College of Heralds Administrative Handbook for a list of the duties of a Baronial Herald. The Office of Herald is a warranted position with a recommended term of 2 years and also reports to the Kingdom Regalia Officer.

By no means is the Herald expected to all the things listed in the Handbook alone nor is the Herald expected to be proficient in all the aspects of the office; in fact having a staff with talents in the different aspects of being a Herald is highly recommended.

Have you always been interested in one or more of the different types of heraldic activities but didn't think you were qualified? Training is available! Are you interested in the office but aren't ready to be in charge? Sign up as a deputy! Please contact Lord Voron or Their Excellencies with questions about the office. Or submit your Letter of Intent to assume the duties of the Office of the Herald to Their Excellencies and the Baronial Seneschal.

Book Reeve (Open until January 1, 2008)

The Barony is seeking a lover of books. The Book Reeve position is open to any one interested in helping the populous further their knowledge in the game we all love so much.

The duties of the Book Reeve include the sales of books at Baronial fighter practices as well as the occasional Baronial event. You will be responsible for ordering replenishment inventory. The fun side of that is you get to search out and locate other books to add to the inventory based on populous inquiry or at your discretion. The final qualifications we are looking for is some one who has cash handling, record keeping, and reporting experience.

Interested individuals should contact the Exchequer, their Excellencies, or the Seneschal.

Regalia Officer (Open Until Filled)

Looking to get involved in the Barony but not sure how? The Regalia Office is ideal for individuals that enjoy helping with the set-up of event sites and decorations.

The Regalia Officer is responsible for the storage, transportation, and upkeep of the regalia and trailers. The Regalia Officer is also encouraged to recruit any deputies that may be needed. The position does involve some heavy lifting and moving. Interested individuals should have a vehicle available to them that can haul the trailer to events. The trailer has brakes installed and requires a brake controller in the vehicle pulling it.

The Regalia Officer reports to the Kingdom Regalia Office, as well as the Baronial Exchequer and Seneschal. All interested parties should submit a letter of intent to Their Excellencies and the Baronial Seneschal.

I will be available as a deputy officer for coaching and assistance until the end of this next Estrella War.

Lord Dóminic MacMorgan, Baronial Regalia Officer

Chancellor of the Youth (Open until Filled)

The young are the future of the SCA but without activities to provide them diversions at events they will have no desire to continue in the SCA. To that end the Barony is seeking a Chancellor of the Youth. The office is responsible for coordinating youth activities and ensuring compliance of the youths and their guardians with Society policies in coordination with the Seneschal staff at events. The job is what you would make of it and benefits from a large selection of deputies. As part of the ongoing improvements in the Society youth activity programs volunteer can expect a background check to be conducted by the SCA. Please contact the Seneschal for specific details of the background check program and what the background check would involve if this causes any concern.

If you are interested in the Office as the Chancellor or as a deputy please contact the Seneschal and their Excellencies with a letter of intent detailing your experience and the role you wish to assume
